Wonderful Thoughts from Bhagavad Gita are given below:

January 1 (Wednesday)

Arise; Attain Glory (Bhagavad Gita 11-33)

January 2 (Thursday)

He has neither birth nor death. Nor does he cease to be, having been in existence before; unborn, eternal, permanent and primeval; he is never killed when the body is killed (2-20)

January 3 (Friday)

Just as a man gives up old garments and puts on new ones , so the embodied self abandons decrepit bodies and assumes new ones (2-22).

January 4 (Saturday)

Whoever has abandoned desires, and moves about without attachments and the sense of “ I ” and “Mine”- he attains to peace (3-71)

January 5 (Sunday)

You have only the right to do and not to think of its fruits. Let not the longing for fruits be the motive force of your action. But don't entertain inaction (chapter 2- verse 47)

January 6 (Monday)

Yield not to unmanliness, Arjuna, for it does not become thee. Cast off this petty faintheartedness and stand up, O Scorcher of enemies (2-3)

January 7 (Tuesday)

Whatever action a great man performs common man follows (3-21)

January 8 (Wednesday)

I am the AUM in all the Vedas (7-8)

January 9 (Thursday)

Those who cook for their own sake ,they truly eat sin (3-13)

January 10 (Friday)

Three path ways to hell: Lust, Anger and Greed (16-21)

January 11 (Saturday)

Enlightened men are those who see the same (atman) in a Brahmana, in a cow, in an elephant and even in a dog or in an eater of dog meat (out caste) 5-18

January 12 (Sunday)

Four kinds of pious people worship me: The distressed, the seeker of knowledge, the seeker of wealth and the wise. Of them the wise is dear to me (7-16 & 17)

January 13 (Monday)

Whenever there is decline of righteousness and rise of unrighteousness, then I send forth (reincarnate) Myself (4-7)

January 14 (Tuesday)

An ignorant man without any positive faith, who knows only to doubt, goes to ruin. To such a doubting soul there is neither this world nor the world beyond (4-40)

January 15 (Wednesday)

No devotee of mine will ever perish (9-31)

January 16 (Thursday)

He does not meet with downfall either here in this world nor in the hereafter. Know for certain, that one who treads the path of virtue, never treads the path of woe (6-40)

January 17 (Friday)

Whoever makes an offering to me with devotion, be it of leaf, flower, fruit or water- that devout offering by a pure hearted man, I accept with joy. (9-26)

January 18 (Saturday)

Better is one's own duty (swa dharma) though devoid of merit, than the duty of another well performed (18-47).

January 19 (Sunday)

Abandoning all duties, come to me as the only refuge. Grieve not; I will deliver you from all sins (18-66)

January 20 (Monday)

He who has no ill will to any being, who is friendly and compassionate, free from egoism and Self sense, even minded in pain and pleasure and patient (12-13).

January 21 (Tuesday)

He who draws away the senses from the objects of sense on every side as a tortoise draws in his limbs in to the shell, his intelligence is firmly set in wisdom (2-58)

January 22 (Wednesday)

Freed from passion, fear and anger, ever absorbed in my thought, and ever dependent on me- many have attained to my state, being purified in the fire of knowledge and austerity (4-10).

January 23 (Thursday)

By restraining all the senses, being even-minded in all conditions, rejoicing in the welfare of all creatures (Sarva Bhuta Hiterata:), they come to me indeed (12-4)

January 24 (Friday)

If the light of a thousand suns were to blaze forth all at one in the sky, that might resemble the exalted Being (11-12)

January 25 (Saturday)

The four fold order was created by me according to the divisions of quality and work. Though I am its creator know me to be incapable of action or change (4-13)

January 26 (Sunday)

The foods which promote life, vitality, strength, health, joy and cheerfulness, which are sweet, soft, nourishing and agreeable are dear to the good (17-8)

January 27 (Monday)

Among women I am Kirti (glory), Sri (prosperity), Vak (speech) Smriti (memory) , Medha (intelligence), Dhriti (firmness) and Ksama (patience)-(10-34)

January 28 (Tuesday)

Whatever form any devotee with faith wishes to worship, I stabilize the faith of that devotee in that very form (7-21)

January 29 (Wednesday)

I am the imperishable Time (10-33)

January 30 (Thursday)

Whenever there is decline of righteousness and rise of unrighteousness, then I send forth Myself (I reincarnate myself) 4-7

January 31(Friday)

For the protection of the good, for the destruction of the wicked and for the establishment of righteousness, I come into being from age to age (4-8).
